

MADE MILLIONS IN BETS.
THEN WENT BROKE.
A fascinating story of the rise and fall of a brilliant man who gained millions from the bets of others only to lose it all bucking his own game. Don't miss this illustrated true story in the March issue of
The American Weekly
one's favorite magazine with BALTIMORE
SUNDAY AMERICAN
Get it from your local newsdealer

EXHIBITION!
SMALLEST
MINATURE
WHALE
EVER KNIGHT
& CENTA
LOOK
COME ONE! COME ALL!

Insulate your Home
Easy to apply - Clean - Economical
J. E. Sears & Co. Inc.

DAY, TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 26
DOROTHY LANOUR in A Medal For Fenny

THURS., MARCH 27, 28
ALICE FAYE in A Fallen Angel

majority of the nation's teachers as members.

Hearse Housing Shortage for Indianan

WEST PALM BEACH, FLA.—E. T. Sarman arrived here from Bainbridge, Ind., in a hearse, but made it clear he is bound on a vacation—not for a graveyard.

He said he bought the vehicle to cope with the housing shortage during his trip.

"I put a bed in it in case I couldn't find a hotel room, and I

I hereby certify that the above statement is true and correct.
Lester Rental, Inc. in event the said Locker Plant is not in operation on March 31, 1946, I reserve the right to request the bank to deposit in full to me.

Lessor's Signature _____

Treas _____
Bank _____

Approved by _____

By _____
